PREFACE.

Before entering into a detailed catalogue of this valuable collection it will be necessary to give a few lines explanatory of the same: The sale is made by the order of H. L. D. Lewis, Administrator of the Estate of Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis, who was the wife of Lorenzo Lewis, son of Lawrence Lewis, (Washington's favorite nephew, husband of Nelly Custis and son of Washington's sister, Betty.) One of the first Administrators of the Estate of Genl. George Washington. This sale embraces all the Documents, Letters, etc., used by the Executors, George Stephen Washington, Lawrence Lewis and Bushrod Washington, in settling up the Washington Estate. These include some of the most important letters written by Washington on Family Affairs, His Autograph List of Slaves, His Private Cash Memorandum Books, His Private Survey Books, His List of the United States Loan Certificates, His Ledger Accounts in one folio volume, of the Mount Vernon Distillery and Fishery, kept by his Secretary, Tobias Lear, in which his vouchers appear throughout; As well as many Leases, Deeds of Trust, Agreements, Sight Drafts, Plans and Surveys in Washington's own handwriting, together with many other manuscript documents of vast importance relating to his estate.

The articles from his Household at Mount Vernon, and which were inherited by Nelly Custis and her husband, Lawrence Lewis, include the elegant large Rose China Punch Bowl, with a delicate Solid Silver Ladle, The small Plated Candlesticks which Washington used at his secretary, The large Silver Plated Candlesticks which adorned his mantel, The quaint old Mahogany Table which stood in the hallway, The elegant artistic Marble Mantel Clock, made by Bruel, of Paris, Many pieces of choice Cut Glassware in the way of Decanters, Wine and Punch Glasses, Pitchers, etc., White Canton China Plates, The Canton China Gravy Boat which matches the China in the possession of the Mount Vernon Society, Two elegant Porcelain Vases, with painted medallions, A large Silver Plated Lamp Stand, An English Silver Plated Open Work Cake Basket, together with many other smaller items, but with equally historic value.

The library contains several books with His autograph, together with a copy of Harvey's Meditations, in which Mary, his mother, has written her name no less than four times, as also in three volumes of the Female Spectator; A volume entitled Allan Ramsay's Poems, in which Martha, his wife, has written her name as Martha Parke Custis. There are also many volumes which composed the library of Lawrence Lewis, and which, no doubt, formerly rested on the book shelves at Mount Vernon. Many of the books bear the delicate signature of Nelly Custis, Washington's adopted daughter, and include numerous volumes of music, the score and words in her handwriting, many of the pieces bearing the imprints of the earliest New York and Philadelphia music publishers, including a sonata entitled "The Battle of Trenton," upon the title page of which is engraved the rarest portrait of Washington. The other books in the catalogue are from either the library of Lawrence Lewis, Nelly Custis or her son, Loren O. Lewis, and include many scarce works in American and European History, as well as a copy of Birch's Views in Philadelphia, and Birch's Country Seats in which the plates [in both] are colored.

This will be the last opportunity for the public to obtain valuable as well as interesting mementoes of the various members of the Washington Family, as this Catalogue embraces all the relics kept by the various heirs out of his estate, and will be the last Public Sale of the effects of Genl. George Washington. The Catalogue made by Mr. Stan. V. Henkels, manager of the book department of Thos. Birch's Sons, fully describes every item, and is accompanied with the sworn statement of the Administrator, H. L. D. Lewis, as to their authenticity. With this statement we leave this collection to be disposed of at the will of [we hope] a generous public. Very truly yours,

THOS. BRUCE.

In this same Sale is included The Famous letter written by Genl. Geo. Washington to Maj. Genl. Lee, in regard to the capture and kidnapping of Benedict Arnold, also the world noted Facetious letter of Benj. MOUNT VERNOS 20th Sep 1799

DEAR SIR

From the moment Mrs. Washington & myself adopted the two youngest children of the late Mr. Custis, it became my intention (if they survived me, and conducted themselves to my satisfaction) to consider them in my will, when I was about to make a distribution of my property.—This determination has undergone no diminution, but is strengthened by the connexion which one of them has formed with my family.—

The expense at which I live and the unproductiveness of my Estate, together, will admit of no diminution of income, while I remain in my present situation;—on the contrary, were it not for occasional supplies of money, in payment for Lands sold within the last four or five years, to the amount of upwards of Fifty thousand dollars; I should not be able to support the former without involving myself in debt and difficulties.

But, as it has been understood from expressions occasionally dropped from (Nelly Custis, now) your wife, that it is the wish of you both to settle in this neighborhood (contiguous to her friends) and as it would be inexpedient, as well as expensive for you, to make a purchase of land when a measure which is in contemplation would place you on more eligible ground, I shall inform you, that in the will which I have by me, and have no disposition to alter, that part of my Mount Vernon tract which lies north west of the public road leading from the Gum Spring to Colchester (from a certain point which I have marked) containing about two thousand acres of Land, with the Dogue run Farm—Mill—Distillery—Gray's heights, &c., is bequeathed to you and her jointly, if you incline to build on it,—and few better sites for a house than Gray's hill, and that range, are to be found in this Country, or elsewhere.—

You may also have what is properly Dogue run Farm,—the Mill—and Distillery on a just & equitable Rent; as also the hands belonging thereto on a reasonable hire; it being necessary, in my opinion, that a young man should have objects of employment. Idleness is disreputable under any circumstances; productive of no good, even when unaccompanied by vicious habits;—and you might commence building as soon as you please; during the progress of which, Mount Vernon might be made your home.—

You may conceive, that building, before you have an absolute title to the land, is hazardous.—To obviate this, I shall only remark that it is not likely that any occurrence will happen, or any change take place, that would alter my present intention. (If the conduct of yourself and wife is such as to merit a continuance of it) but be this as it may, that you may proceed on sure ground with respect to the buildings, I will agree, and this letter shall bear evidence of it, that if, thereafter, I should find cause to make any other disposition of the property here mentioned, I will pay the actual cost of such buildings to you, or yours.—

Although I have not the most distant idea that any event will happen that could effect a change in my present determination,—nor any suspicion that you, or Nelly would conduct yourselves in such a manner as to merit my serious displeasure; yet at the same time that I am inclined to do justice to others, it behoves me to take care of myself, by keeping the staff in my own hands.—

That you may have a more perfect idea of the Landed property I have bequeathed to you & Nelly in my will, I transmit a plan of it, every part of which is correctly laid down & accurately measured,—showing the number of Fields,—Lots,—Meadows,—Wastelands, &c., with the contents & relative situation of each,—all of which, except the Mill Swamp (which has never been considered as part of Dogue run Farm, and is retained, merely for the purpose of putting it into a better state of improvement, you may have on the terms before mentioned,—with every kind wish for you & Nelly, in which your Aunt who has been & is very much indisposed unites,—I remain,

Your Affectionate Uncle,

GEO. WASHINGTON.

Mr. Lawrence Lewis.

- 5 AUTOGRAPH LETTER, SIGNED, OF GENL. GEO. WASHINGTON, to Lawrence Lewis, dated Mount Vernon 28th Sep 1799. 4°, 4 pages.

This interesting letter relates to the former. It speaks in decided, though kind terms of his dissatisfaction with his overseer, Mr. Anderson, and explains more fully his intended generous gift of Lands to his adopted Daughter Nelly and Lawrence Lewis. He also mentions his reasons for wishing them to take at a fair rental the Pogue Run Farm, Mill &c., that he may do without the services of an Overseer, and attend to his Estate himself if he should not be again called in to the Public Service of the Country.

- 6 AUTOGRAPH LETTER, SIGNED, OF GENL. GEO. WASHINGTON to Lawrence Lewis. 4°, 3 pages.

Mount Vernon. 4th Aug. 1797

DEAR SIR

Your letter of the 24th ulto has been received, and I am sorry to hear of the loss of your servant; but it is my opinion these elopements will be much more, before they are less frequent; and that the persons making them should never be retained, if they are recovered, as they are sure to contaminate and discontent others.—I wish from my soul that the Legislature of this State could see the policy of a gradual Abolition of Slavery: It would prevent much future mischief.

Whenever it is convenient to you to make this place your home I shall be glad to see you at it for that purpose and that there may be no misunderstanding in the matter, I shall inform you beforehand, that you, servant (if you bring one) and horses, will fare in all respects as we & mine do, but that I shall expect no Services from you for which pecuniary compensation will be made.—I have already as many on wages as are sufficient to carry on my business, and more indeed than I can find means to pay, conveniently. —As both your aunt and I are in the decline of life and regular in our habits, especially in our hours of rising & going to bed, I require some person (fit and Proper) to ease me of the trouble of entertaining company; particularly of nights, as it is my inclination to retire (and unless prevented by very particular company, always do retire) either to bed, or to my study, soon after candle-light.—In taking these duties (which hospitality obliges me to bestow on company) off my hands, it would render me a very acceptable service, and for a little time only, to come an hour in the day, now and then, devoted to the recording of some Papers which time would not allow me to complete before I left Philadelphia, would also be acceptable.—Besides there is nothing at present, that would require any portion of your time, or attention; both of which, if you have inclination for it, might be devoted to Reading, as I have a great many instructive Books, on many subjects, as well as amusing ones, &c. &c &c

Your Aunt unites with me in best regards for you, and I am your sincere friend and

Affectionate Uncle

GEO WASHINGTON.

495 A LETTER FROM GENL. GEO. WASHINGTON TO MAJOR Genl. Henry Lee. Folio. 2 pages.

Hd Qs Oct 20th, 17-90.

DEAR SIR,

The plan proposed for taking A-d (the outline of which are communicated in your letter which was this moment put into my hands) without delay has every mark of a good one—I therefore agree to the promised reward, and have selected one to deliver in 1840 in management of the business as to give it my full approbation; and leave the whole to the confidence of your own judgment with this expressed stipulation & condition, namely that he A-d is brought to me alive.

No circumstances whatever shall oblige me, in any manner, to his being put to death—the idea which would accompany such an event would be that millions had been hired to assassinate him,—my aim is to make a public example of him, and this should be strongly impressed upon those who are employed to bring him off.

The Sergeant must be very circumspect—too much zeal may create suspicion, and too much ignorance may defeat the project.—The most inviolable secrecy must be observed on all hands.—I send you five Guineas; but I am not satisfied of the propriety of the Sergeant's operations, though some. This circumstance may also lead to suspicion as it is but too well known to the enemy that we do not abound in this article.

The interviews between the party in, and out of the City, should be managed with much caution and seeming indifference, or else the frequency of their meetings &c. may betray the design & involve bad consequence,—but I am persuaded you will place every matter in a proper point of view to the conductors of this interesting business.—& therefore I shall only add that I am

Dr Sir

Yr Obedt & Affectionate Son

GEO WASHINGTON.

Major Lee,

This most important of all Genl. Washington's Revolutionary letters is known throughout the whole world. It is quoted by Washington Irving in his famous life of Genl. George Washington, and was considered by him to be the most important of all the Washington letters that came under his pen, and the only one to use his own words, which he does not to personally own. To Bibliographers in Washingtoniana this letter has been known for a long time. It has been in the possession of the present owner for upwards of fifty years and from whom it was borrowed by Irving for his work. It is hoped that this opportunity may be embraced to place it in the repository where the public can at all times view it.

496 LETTER WRITTEN BY BENJ. FRANKLIN TO HIS INTI- mate friend, James Reed. Folio.

Saturday Morning Aug 27 45

DEAR JIMMY:

I have been reading your Letter over again, and since you desire an Answer I sit me down to write you one; yet as I write in the Market, it will I believe, be but a short one, tho' I may be long about it.—I approve of your Method of Writing one's Mind when one is too warm to speak it with Temper. But being myself quite cool in this Affair I might as well speak as write, if I had an Opportunity.—Your Copy of Kant's must be a great improvement, as has that Passage as you quote it, In omnibus Requiem Quæritur, sed non in eis, sed in eis, sed in eis. The good Father understood Pleasure (Requiem) better, and wrote, in an elegant Poem. I correct it thus, without Hesitation. I know there is another Reading, in an elegant Poem, but I reject tho' more to the Point, as an Expression too indecent.—

Are you an Attorney, a Physician, and do you know no better how to chase a proper Court in which to bring your Adversary? Would you submit to the Decision of a Husband, a Cause between you and his Wife? Don't you, nor your Wife, are in the Right? It may be you don't, for you are yet but a young Husband. But see on this Head the learned Coke, that Oracle of the Law in his Chapter De Jure Maritali.—I advise you not to bring it to Trial; for if you do you'll certainly be cast.

Frequent Interruptions make it impossible for me to go thro' all your Letter, I have only Time to remind you of the saying of that excellent old Philosopher Socrates, that in Disputations, one should not be too confident, but that Concessions are the wisest, and to hint to you, that you are in Danger of losing that if in our present Case, if you are not very speedy in your Acknowledgements; which I presume myself you will be, when you consider the Sex of your Adversary.—Your Vents are very short one Thing disagreeable in them, that is, they were always too short, I shall exceedingly regret the Loss of them, unless you continue, as you have begun, to make it up to me by long Letters, I am, dear Jimmy with sincerest Love to our dearest Suky.

Your very affectionate Friend and Cousin,

B. Franklin.

This famous facetious letter has received more notoriety than any other letter written by Benj. Franklin; it has been copiously copied and published in England and America, and has long been the apple of the eye of most autograph collectors, both here and abroad. Of course the quotations attributed to Thomas A' Kempis are spurious, and I show in what a facetious vein the thoughts of one of the great master minds of Revolutionary times was prone to run at certain periods. It is written to his most intimate friend, Jas. Reed, and this is the first time that the original has ever been placed before the public. It is known as "The Celebrated Letter Written in the Market House" at Front and Market, Philadelphia.

- 535 Darley, Felix O. C. Compositions in Outline, from Judd's "Margaret." Engraved by Konrad Huber. Oblong 4°, morocco, gilt edges.
New York, 1856

A clean and unspotted copy within of this beautiful work, although the binding is somewhat rubbed. Amateurs expend vast sums in the collection of the grotesque designs of Crankshaw and "Phiz," or the hideous caricatures of Hogarth. Their good taste would be better reflected in the collection of the exquisite work of Felix Darley, which is not better exemplified than in the illustrations of Judd's "Margaret."

- §42 Ephrata Press. Gueldene Aepffel In Silbern Schalen Oder, Schöne und nützliche Worte und Warheiten Zur Gottseligkeit. Enthielten In Sieben Haupt-Theilen, die in diesem Buch zusammen gestellt sind ; Mit sonderbarem Fleisz von denen in der vorigen Edition hausig eingeschlichenen Drucksehlern gereiniget. Nebst angehangten Vorreden und einem zweyfachen Register. Efrata, Im Jahr des Heils, 1745. Verlegt durch etliche Mitglieder der Mennonisten-gemeine.

Hildeburn, 932. It is claimed that this is the first of the Ephrata Imprints, and it is certainly one of the first, as none are known of earlier date than 1745. This copy, which is in the original leather, with clasps, has title, the seven unnumbered pages, then another title, which is page 1, and continuous pagination up to 519, broken only by the errors at pages 330 and 345, where there is lot of duplicate pagination, as mentioned on last page of the Register. There are six sub-titles. On the reverse of page 1, there is a curious and ghastly wood cut of thirteen skulls with bones. Leaf 1 of the Signature M is lacking in the Register. The book is otherwise so perfect, that we may be justified in expressing the doubt whether it was issued with the book.

Mr. Pennypacker, the ablest authority we have, quotes the Ephrata books as the rarest and most sought after of American Imprints.

- 543 France. Traite d'amitie et de commerce conclu entre le Roi et les Etats-Unis de l'Amerique Septentrionale le 6 Fevrier, 1778. 4^o, 8 pages.

London, 1759

Fine Copy of the original edition. Gordon says (History of Pennsylvania, Philada., 1829, page 382): "In examining the conduct of the proprietaries, the author has not spared the memory of Penn, much less that of his children ; under his hand the character of the early settlers of Pennsylvania rises in strong and pleasing relief, and the contrast between them and the proprietaries is much to the advantage of the former."

- 545 The Examination of Doctor Benjamin Franklin, before an August Assembly, relating to the Repeal of the Stamp-Act, etc. Small, 8^o. pp. 16, uncut. N. P. N. D.

Philadelphia, Hall & Sellers, 1766. See Hildeburn, No. 2216.

Eugene E. Prussing, Esq.,
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Sir:-

In answer to your inquiry of April 20th I will have to depend upon my memory alone to interpret who the buyers were. Byron Reed was of Denver, Colorado; Murphy was Mrs. Phoebe B. Hearst, San Francisco, California; Mitchell was Judge James T. Mitchell, who is now dead; Sabine was Joseph F. Sabin, 22 Pine Street, New York City, Benjamin is W. R. Benjamin of 225 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Judge Mitchell was Chief Justice of Pennsylvania. I sold his collection for him before his death. It took in about thirteen catalogues, many of them are handsomely illustrated. He had one of the largest collections of Portraits of Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, Lawyers Judges, Military and Naval Heroes, Presidents, etc., of any man in the Country. He died about two years ago. To reach him you would have to have golden wings as I know the Angel Gabriel let him slip under the gate.

Sorry that I cannot give you any more information.

Yours truly,

Stan. V. Henkels

Philadelphia April 27, 1917

Mr. Eugene Prussing,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 26th at hand. The Mitchell who purchased in the Washington Sale was not Judge Mitchell. I was lead to believe it was by the fact of you putting his name in my mouth in your letter. It was the firm of Mitchells of New York, consisting of George D. Smith, and A. J. Bowden. If you would write to George D. Smith, 547 Fifth Avenue, New York City, he could probably tell you for whom they purchased. In that Sale I think I bought under the name of Grover for Judge Mitchell. No apology is needed as I am always willing to assist wherever I can.

Yours truly,

*Have you met Phoebe. She would like
